Santa Fe, May 2024

¡Hello, I'm Román!

Software Developer and Graphic Designer from Argentina, passionate about creating high-impact experiences in web development and multimedia design.

Bachelor's Degree in Visual Communication Design from the Universidad Nacional del Litoral, complemented by specializations in Front End Development and Full Stack Node.js, I'm currently pursuing a Technical Degree in Software Development to further enhance my skills in designing, building, verifying, debugging, optimizing, and maintaining software.

Ready to bring my full potential and experience to your team.

Sincerely,
Román Ríos
